"Children have never been very good at listening to their elders, but they have never failed to imitate them."

- James Baldwin

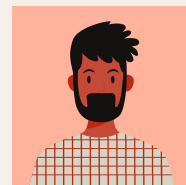

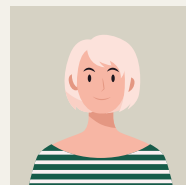

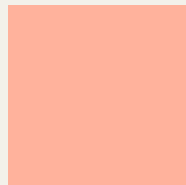

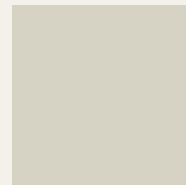

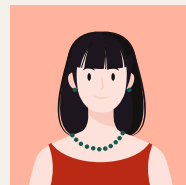

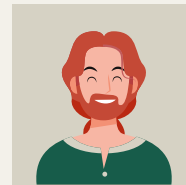

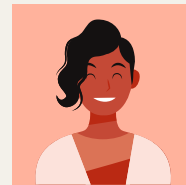

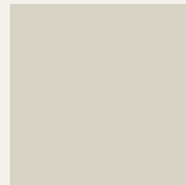

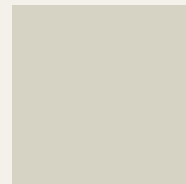

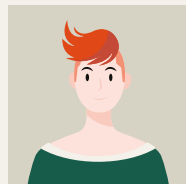

Los niños nunca han sido buenos para escuchar a sus mayores, pero nunca han fallado en imitarlos a ellos. James Baldwin

孩子們從不擅長聽長輩的教誨，但是他們很會模仿長輩的言行。

- James Baldwin -
