Possible new 2020 bond discussion (Information)

- Aaron discussed the overall reasoning of going for the next bond in March of 2020
- The new bond would be for $198 million based on the needs reflected in the original needs assessment
- Rob suggested to considering efficiency upgrades such as adding shading to new and existing buildings
- Tom commented on communication to the community
- Kevin discussed the survey done by the District via phone and email

- Melinda commented that the new bond is a great idea based on the progress of the J1 bond
- Rob commented that marketing to the elementary school parents would be a good strategy as they have a long term investment with the District. Also urged the District to build a consensus by doing listening meetings with the community. Asking the community what they would like to see and ranking the suggestions

Review J1 Budget and Expenditures

- Melinda had a question about the deferred maintenance budget, Aaron gave examples of projects completed from that budget
- Tom suggested adding a line item to the spreadsheet titled “Remaining Budget”, also to add a comment next to projects that have not yet been started (such as lighting).
- Tom had a follow up question regarding what happens when a project is complete and there are remaining funds. Aaron answered by informing the committee it would be re-allocated into another project line items that are outlined in the Measure J1 language.
- Rob commented that he would like to see a column added to the budget showing the original budget next to the current budget in order to see where we stand.
- Tom had a question regarding the modular budget still having $30 million. Aaron explained that construction contracts have only been approved for three sites to date (Madison, Garfield, and Wilson). Jefferson, McKinley, Roosevelt, and Washington proposals have not yet been presented.
- Tom had a question regarding why lighting had a $3 million dollar budget remaining. Aaron explained the lighting project has not started yet.

Public Comments

- Chicke C. Udemezue comment: The District should verify there are no other District related events occurring on the same night as the CBOC meeting, for example there is another event happening at John Muir Middle School at the same time as the CBOC meeting.
- Rob Rich comment: Amazing how much work has been done
- Melinda Bradford comment: Thanked the bond team for their work and commented on the transparency.

Staff Comments

- Aaron Kerrigan and Kevin Collins expressed a “Thank you” to the members of the CBOC
